To the Voters of the City

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I wish to announce through the public press that I am again a candidate for mayor. This does not come entirely of my own choice but largely in response to an insistent call of the people, not a small clique or faction.
The people are ripe for a change and want it badly. As a candidate I am no accident—I have the experience and I believe I have the ability and the backbone to do my duty as I see it, with justice and equal rights to all, and special privileges to none.

Regardless of who may or may not support me I have not now nor will in the future have any entangling alliances. I am free and independent of all men, cliques or factions; as to this I refer you to my previous record and if elected and I believe I will be, I am going to give you a clean cut Business Administration.

As to public improvements, I am the originator of that policy in this city, and will push it to the limit, but with reason and consideration. I am not in favor of embarrassing the city financially or impoverishing the people as a whole, especially in times of financial depression when the poor and unfortunate are compelled to sacrifice their homes to meet the demands made upon them.

I am with respect yours,
WM. McCONOCHIE.
